The Office for Catholic Social Justice Ministry extends its thanks to St. Thomas Church for including Cooperative Parish Sharing in your list of parish priorities, and for being one of the many parishes in the Archdiocese that has made a commitment to this important program. For more than 47 years the CPS program has provided assistance for poor communities by funding parish programs to address real needs. From helping parishes set up food pantries, to providing safe summer programs for children, to training leaders for ministry, your participation is a key to its success, and we are truly grateful.
